FINDINGThere being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Count 1: Conspiracy to Distribute Fentanyl and Cocaine in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 846, 21 U.S.C. § 841(b)(1)(A).

Count 8: Possession of Firearms in Furtherance of a Drug Trafficking Crime in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A)(i).

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $21,598.81 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
Z.S.'s Family	$21,598.81

The Court finds from a consideration of the record that the defendant's economic circumstances allow for restitution payments pursuant to the following schedule: Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $100, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release, and shall begin 90 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-participants, Ciara Clutario (Docket No.: 23-CR-00239-2); Alejandro Soto, Austin Blancano, John Cartier, Christian McKibben, Craig Rushton (Docket No.: 24-CR-00284-MWF); and Sebastian Rodriguez (Docket No. 24-CR-00176-MWF) to the extent that said co-participants are determined liable for the same victim losses ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with Second Amended General Order No. 20-04.

USA vs. 1. Brian McDonald

Docket No.: CR 23-239-MWF

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Brian McDonald, is hereby committed on Count 1 and 8 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 248 months. This term consists of 188 months on Count 1 of the Indictment, and 60 months on Count 8, to be served consecutively.

The Court recommends that the defendant be considered for participation in the Bureau of Prison's Residential Drug Abuse Program (RDAP).

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 5 years. This term consists of 5 years on each of Counts 1 and 8 of the Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office and Second Amended General Order 20-04.
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from custody and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
4. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs. The defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the program by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer.
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
7. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
8. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
9. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, nor shall the defendant use, any name other than the defendant's true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
10. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any other financial gains to the Court-ordered financial obligation.

Search, Computer and Digital Currency Conditions

11. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition shall be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

USA vs. 1. Brian McDonald

Docket No.: CR 23-239-MWF

12. The defendant shall possess and use only those digital devices, screen usernames, email accounts, social media accounts, messaging applications, and cloud storage accounts, as well as any passwords or passcodes for all such digital devices and accounts, that have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any new devices, accounts, applications, passwords, or passcodes are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. A digital device is any electronic system or device that can access, view, obtain, store, or transmit digital data related to the Dark Web.
13. All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment, used by the defendant shall be subject to search, seizure and computer monitoring. This shall not apply to items used at the employment site that are maintained and monitored by the employer.
14. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Computer Monitoring Program. The defendant shall pay the cost of the Computer Monitoring Program.
15. The defendant shall disclose to the Probation Officer all digital assets owned or controlled by the defendant. Digital assets are defined as any type of value storage represented in digital form. Digital assets include, but are not limited to, all forms of virtual currencies, bitcoin (BTC), ethereum (ETH), digital tokens of any kind (including non-fungible tokens), etc. The defendant shall report all digital assets whether such assets are stored through an account with a third-party custodian (e.g., Coinbase) or in a self-hosted wallet (e.g., paper wallets, phone applications, decentralized applications, hardware devices). The defendant shall not obtain, open, or maintain any wallets or accounts without prior approval of the Probation Officer. All digital-asset transactions shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request. The defendant is prohibited from using privacy-based blockchain protocols or techniques including, but not limited to, Zcash, Monero, mixing services, Tornado Cash, Wasabi Wallets, etc., unless prior approval is obtained from the Probation Officer. In addition to the above-disclosure requirements, the defendant shall comply with the Internal Revenue Service's reporting requirements as they pertain to digital assets and shall provide proof of having done so to the Probation Officer.
16. The defendant shall not use any software program or device designed to hide, alter, or delete records/logs of his computer use, Internet activities, or files stored on his assigned computer(s) and phone(s). This includes the use of encryption, use of private browsing modes (e.g., Incognito Mode, private windows, Tor, TAILS, etc.), steganography, file erasing, file shredding, secure file deletion, and cache/cookie removal software without prior written approval from the United States Probation Office.

The Court authorizes the Probation & Pretrial Services Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Service), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

The defendant is advised of his appeal rights.

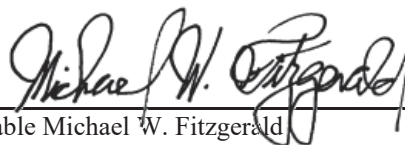

The Court recommends the defendant be designated to FCI Sheridan or an institution with similar educational programs.

The Court grants the government's motion to dismiss the remaining counts of the Indictment, as to this defendant only.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
